

Compliance

Technopolis Insurance Brokers Pvt Ltd., is authorized and regulated by the IRDA (Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority) which is the independent statutory body to regulate, promote and ensure orderly growth of the insurance business and re-insurance business in India.

Every employee is trained to adhere to the highest ethical standards and at the same time to conform to the business requirements of the regulators.

Professional procedures are followed to ensure that Client data is stored, managed and used in a secure and confidential manner and records are maintained as such. Regular audits by experts in the area of compliance are made to ensure that departments and individuals are being constantly trained to reduce any opportunity for error.